Cultural Center Opened by Ike in Hope of Peace

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
NEW YORK (AP) — President
Eisenhower broke ground today
for a $6 million dollar cultural center and predicted it will be a mighty influence for world peace.
The President took part in ceremonies marking the start of the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts. He flew from Washington
for the occasion.
The President's plane landed at
the nearby Newark, N.J., airport
and Eisenhower motored to New York after an airport greeting
from Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey and others.
A 33-man motorcycle escort ushered the President's car into Manhattan by way of the Lincoln
Tunnel under the Hudson River.
Eisenhower stood up in a bubble
top limousine and waved to about 300 persons lined up near the tunnel exit.
He responded in similar fashion to other greetings from citizens as his car proceeded across town.
The ground breaking at the cultural center was just one of the activities which will keep the President buzzing busily about Manhattan during the day and
into the night.
In his talk Eisenhower said the
center—which will include a new Metropolitan Opera House and a new home for the New York Philharmonic—will enrich the lives of people generally.
He added: "The beneficial
influence of this great cultural adventure will not be limited to our own borders. Here will occur a true exchange of the fruits of national cultures.
"From this will develop a
growth that will spread to the corners of the earth, bringing with it a kind of human message that
only individuals—not governments—
can transmit.
"Here will develop a mighty influence for peace and understanding throughout the world."
The site of the center is an area
of three and a half blocks on 64th street west of Broadway, was cleared of run-down dwellings and
other buildings for the huge construction project to be completed
in 1963.
Eisenhower said the center symbolizes not only an increasing interest in America in cultural
matters, but also is "a stimulating" approach to one of the nation's pressing problems: urban blight.
"It is a cooperative venture in which federal and local government, artistic groups, large foundations and private citizens are joining forces," he said.
The President noted, too, that Fordham University is planning a
new campus and buildings adjacent to the cultural center.
"All of us salute this magnificent effort," Eisenhower added.
After the ground breaking ceremony Eisenhower goes to the New York Coliseum to look over displays in the international show of export goods from 63 countries.
At the fair, exhibiting nations
will present him with a truckload
of exotic gifts.

Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cancer
was found in the exploratory operation of Gen. Nathan F. Twining,
chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. When surgeons removed
the upper lobe of his left lung in an operation Tuesday.
A bulletin issued at the Pen-
ta-gon today said cancer was found
and added:
"The entire diseased portion of
the lung was removed by surgery
and there was no evidence of involvement in other areas of the chest."
The 61-year-old air officer underwent the surgery at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center.
Brig. Gen. James H. Forney,
acting commander of the Army
hospital, informed the Defense Department that Twining should be able to leave the hospital with-
in three or four weeks and should be able to return to his duties in about two weeks after he is dismissed from the hospital.
Twining has served two years
as head of the top military planning board and was recently nominated by President Eisenhower
for a second two-year term.

Pennsylvania Freight Goes Off Tracks

By GEORGE ESPER
FRAZER, Pa. (AP) — A freight
train derailed Wednesday night
and moments later a passenger train plowed into the wreckage
blocking the four main line tracks
of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
None of the 41 passengers and 5 crewmen aboard the night express from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh was hospitalized, but three
people reported minor injuries.
All were brought back to Philadelphia early today on a relief
train. The five crewmen on the freight train escaped injury.
Only the locomotive and two of the 44 freight cars stayed on the tracks. The rest ended in a tangle
of wreckage across the tracks
or at the bottom of a 40-foot embankment.
When the passenger train locomotive plowed into this wreckage
it overturned and slid down the embankment, but the engineer
and firemen climbed out a window uninjured.
Ninety baggage and mail cars behind the locomotive also derailed,
but another baggage car, a Pull-
man car and the five passenger cars
at the end of the 16-car train
stayed on the track.
"We were going about 65 miles
an hour, within the 70 mile speed limit," said the engineer of the passenger train, F. W. Driscoll, 64, of Philadelphia.
"An emergency signal flashed
in my cab. I slammed on the emergency brake. I had no idea
what we hit. There was a heavy fog. The next thing I knew our engine was over a gully and on its side. Myself and the fireman got out through a window."
He had just left the suburban Paoli station, about 25 miles from Philadelphia, and was on the outskirts of Frazer when his train
reached the derailed Chicago to New York freight. The cause of its derailment was not known.
The passengers were thrown to the floor and many were shaken.

Recall Petitions Being Counted at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Employees
of the Pulaski County clerk's office today worked painstakingly
counting petitions seeking the recall of all six Little Rock School Board members.
Clerk Robert S. Peters said the official tally of more than 17,000
names was expected to be completed today.
Names on the petitions, filed by
two opposing factions in the seering controversy over dismissal of 44 teachers and school administrators, were not being checked
against poll tax books.
Such verification would be sought only if someone challenged
the number of signatures, the county clerk certifies to the Pulaski County Election Commission.
One set of petitions, seeking the recall of Ed. L. McKinley Jr., school board president, and members Ben Rowland and Robert W.
Lester, outspoken segregationists,
these three ordered the filings of the educational personnel in a
purge of alleged sympathizers
with racial integration.
The other petitions were filed
in a countermove by segregation-
ist groups and are aimed at recall of three school board members who opposed the purge—Ted Lamb, Russell H. Matson and Everett Tucker.
The anti-purge petitions were
submitted by a newly formed citizens group called The Committee
to Stop This Outrageous Purge (STOP). Dr. Drew Agay, president of the organization, said
9,600 names were on the petitions.
Officials of the Mothers League
of Central High School, Pulaski
Citizens Council and the Rights Council filed the petitions aimed at Lamb, Tucker and Matson, who are considered racial moderates.
Those groups claimed about 7,750
signatures were obtained.
If the county clerk verifies that
each set of petitions has at least 7,000 names, the election commissioners will be notified there are sufficient names for obtaining a
vote on both proposed recalls.
The commissioners have indicated they will meet as soon as Peters notifies them of sufficiency
of the petitions. Then the commissioners would have ten days in which to set an election.

3 Historical Newspapers Given to Star

Three historical editions of Arkansas state newspapers have been given to the Star by Mrs. Harry Silver in memory of her mother,
H. L. Buschley, long-time
resident of Carlisle Ark. They had been perfectly preserved at her mother's house.
The editions are:
Arkansas Democrat Confederate
Reunion Edition of May 16-18, 1911.
Arkansas Gazette Centennial
(the newspaper's own 100th birthday) of November 20, 1919.
Arkansas Gazette State Centennial Edition of June 15, 1936.
The Star will have these paper-
back editions bound in hard covers by its contract binder, the Forman Company, Monmouth, Ill.,
and will add them to its own files
in the newspaper vault.
The public will have access to them at all times.

Junior-Senior Prom All Set for Friday

Hope High School Juniors and Seniors will hold their annual prom
Friday and from all indications
it will last practically all night.
It begins at 8 p.m. in the school
practice gym which has been decorated in the South Sea Island
theme. A complete program has been arranged including dancing
and refreshments. This part of the program will continue until about 11:30 p.m.
At 12 p.m. both classes will be special guests of the Sanger Theater for the showing of a comedy,
"Old Men and Old Women," co-
starring David Niven and Ginger Rogers.
Hope Country Club will open at 11 p.m. until the students decide to call it a night. Dancing will be the feature of the program and all kinds of sandwiches and refreshments will be served.

Julius Adams Resigns as Principal

Announcement was made today
of the resignation of Julius Adams
Hope High School Principal, effective with the close of school.
Mr. Adams has been principal here for the past three years and has been teaching for 10 years.
He plans to return to the teaching profession and will enter the business field in Indiana.
He has certainly enjoyed the past three years and has to leave.
But I simply can't turn down the
financial advantages the change
will bring," Mr. Adams said today.
"We haven't made any replacement plans as yet. Supt. James H. Jones said, and expressed his regret that Mr. Adams is leaving.

Continued Air Service for Nine Cities

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Civil Aeronautics Board examiner has recommended that Trans-Texas
Airways continue serving nine cities in Texas and Arkansas.
Examiner Thomas L. Wrenn
also decided that Trans-Texas
need not renew service at six
other points.
Wrenn's decision will become
final May 22 unless objections are filed.
He recommended Trans-Texas
continue its service to Galveston, Brownwood and Marfa, Abilene, Below, Pecos, Stockton and Dallas,
and Kerrville and Fort Stockton
between San Antonio and El Paso.
This authority is for five years.
The examiner also found that Trans-Texas should continue
serving Pecos and Marshall in Texas and Magnolia and Camden
in Arkansas. This authority will continue until 60 days after the board reaches a decision in a
southwestern local service, proceeding yet to be held.
Wrenn concluded that Trans-
Texas does not have to serve Bee-
ville, Coleman, College Station,
Bryan and Brady, Tex., and Sluts-
gart or Helena-West Helena, Ark.
The decision also will enable Trans-Texas to continue its Corpus Christi to San Antonio leg between Mission, McAllen - Edinburg and San Antonio.
A city council would be responsible for administering the whole
city under the general supervision
of the Big Four, but the powers
could intervene in city affairs only
by unanimous vote. How this arrangement would affect East Germany's capital in East Berlin was
not stated.
The West made a compromise
approach to Russia's demand that East and West Germany must be reunited themselves. It proposed in the second phase the creation of a mixed German committee of West and 40 East Germans to make plans for increased contacts between the two Germanys
and to draft an all-German electoral law.

Abandonment Filed Against Missing Man

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — A
charge of wife and child abandonment has been filed against a
city employe missing since April 18.
Prosecutor Lyman Mikol said
yesterday he filed the charge against Wesley Mahan, 46, a supervisor in the Fort Smith, Ark.
Water Department, after Mrs. Ma-
han signed a complaint.
Mahan left home April 18 and
his automobile was found abandoned in the Peno Bottoms near the junction of the Arkansas and Poleau Rivers near here.
The Water Department has
posted a $100 reward for information leading to the location of Mahan.

Plans Made for a United Fund

NEW YORK (AP) — President
Eisenhower arranged to meet today with David McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union.
Arrangements for the conference
at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel were announced as representatives of the union and steel industry concluded a two-hour contract negotiation session.
The announcement was made by
the White House Press Secretary
James C. Hagerty who said the

would be "just a social call."

Suggests This First Step in Plan to Disarm

GENEVA (AP) — The Western
powers proposed to Russia today
that divided Berlin be made a united city under Big Four guarantees as the first step in a sweeping package plan to unify East and West Germany and begin global disarmament.
The massive, four-phase Western program was introduced in the fourth session of the Big Four foreign ministers conference as
the Western response to Russia's demand that West Berlin be made a free city. It also countered President Nikita Khrushchev's call for a peace settlement with divided Germany.
The proposals provides for suc-
cessive disarmament measures,
including initial limits of 2 1/2 million men in the armed forces of the United States and Russia, and leading eventually to limitation
and possible withdrawal of all foreign troops (Soviet and Western) from Germany and neighboring areas.
It would unify Germany in 30 months. United Germany would be free to elect membership in either the Atlantic Alliance or NATO or the Soviet bloc, or to choose a neutral policy.
Whatever the choice, the big powers, Germany and other European countries would take steps
to avoid any change in the East-West balance of power and could enter into agreements against aggression. Western leaders have long expressed confidence Germany would line up with the West.
As a package, the plan had no
prospects of even serious consideration by Russia. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromiko has already rejected it as "a tangled web of unrelated issues." But parts of it, especially the Berlin proposal, considerably could lead to some bargaining.
Berlin, in the first phase of the package program, would be held
by "free elections to be held throughout all Berlin under supervision" of either the big powers or
the United Nations. The United States, Russia, Britain and France would keep their troops
until the final German peace settlement, provided for in the fourth phase.
A city council would be responsible for administering the whole
city under the general supervision
of the Big Four, but the powers
could intervene in city affairs only
by unanimous vote. How this arrangement would affect East Ger-
many's capital in East Berlin was

Way Cleared for Action on Housing Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House
today cleared for House action
next week a multibillion-dollar
housing bill.
The vote sending the controversial measure to the House floor
after a deadlock of more than a month was announced as 8-4. The four Republicans reportedly opposed the action.
The committee previously had
deadlocked 6-4 on clearing the bill.
Two Democrats who previously
had voted with the four Republicans were reported to have
switched. They are Howard W.
Smith of Virginia and William Colmer of Mississippi.
The bill contains authority for 1 1/2 billion dollars for slum elimination and urban renewal projects, 400 million dollars for college housing, 100 million dollars
for housing for the elderly, lower FHA down payments, and 140,000
new units of lowrent public housing.
Much Republican opposition to the Democratic-backed measure focuses on proposed authority for additional public housing. President Eisenhower asked for an end
to public housing subsidies in his January budget message.
It was on March 30, that local

Fire Destroys a School at Ward

WARD, Ark. (AP) — Fire early
today destroyed the Ward elemen-

next week.
The brick veneer school building and the frame gymnasium
were about 30 feet apart.
Origin of the fire was not determined.
The Ward school was part of the school system at Cabot, about
four miles south of here.
The two towns are on Highway

University Will Graduate 725

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —
About 725 seniors and graduate students will get degrees at the 35th annual spring commencement exercises at the University of Arkansas May 30.
Dr. John T. Caldwell, president
of the university, will deliver the commencement address.
The inaugural ceremony will be preached by the Rev. Gaylord
B. Noyce, pastor of the United Church of Raleigh, N.C.
The 725 graduation candidates
brings to 1,337 the total to receive degrees this year. Last January 812 seniors and graduate students received degrees.

Civil Defense Personnel Big Problem

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Death, illness and resignation are creating problems in the top civilian and military levels of the Defense Department.

Latest in this series is the announcement that Gen. Nathan F. Twining, 61-year-old chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has undergone major surgery.

The Pentagon said the upper lobe of Twining's left lung was removed during the operation Tuesday at Walter Reed Army Hospital, and doctors began analysis of a specimen of tissue.

The purpose of such analysis usually is to determine whether and growth in the tissue is cancer or malignant. The announcement said Twining's condition after the SHREVEPORT, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Louisiana Chemical Co., a subsidiary of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., plans to go into the retail petroleum business in Arkansas, Louisiana and east Texas.

W. R. Stephens, of Little Rock, president of both companies, told Ark-La Gas stockholders yesterday that the utility would operate a number of independent service stations to be named Ark-La Service Centers.

Stephens also told board members that Ark-La Gas earnings for the first quarter of 1958 increased about $1,700,000 over the same period in 1957. Consolidated earnings for first quarter 1958 were $5,270,998, or $1.10 1/2 per share, he said.

Earnings for the 12 months ending March 31 were $12,443,478, compared to $8,929,928 for the previous 12 months.

Vance M. Thompson of McCrory, Ark., was elected to the Ark-La board to succeed Robert S. Davis of St. Paul, Minn.

operation was very satisfactory. At any rate, the chairman of the strategy-making organization obviously will be absent from his post for several weeks.

Word of Twining's illness came as Donald A. Quarles, deputy secretary of defense, was being buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

Resignations elsewhere in the Pentagon official family also confront the administration with filling at least two sub-secretary posts.

The situations arose at a particularly unfortunate time. May 27, once mentioned grimly by the Soviet Union as the time when the Western Allies should be out of Berlin, is approaching. The Kremlin subsequently said it didn't mean to fix any actual deadline, but Pentagon military leaders continue to watch with caution.

Filling the vacancy created by Quarles' death is the foremost problem. Various names mentioned in speculation include Asst. Secretary Wilfred J. McNelly, the Pentagon's comptroller, who has been a defense official since the outset of service unification; E. Perkins McGuire, assistant secretary for logistics; and Thomas S. Gates Jr., present navy secretary.

Gates has submitted his resignation.

operation was very satisfactory. At any rate, the chairman of the strategy-making organization obviously will be absent from his post for several weeks.

Word of Twining's illness came as Donald A. Quarles, deputy secretary of defense, was being buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

Resignations elsewhere in the Pentagon official family also confront the administration with filling at least two sub-secretary posts.

The situations arose at a particularly unfortunate time. May 27, once mentioned grimly by the Soviet Union as the time when the Western Allies should be out of Berlin, is approaching. The Kremlin subsequently said it didn't mean to fix any actual deadline, but Pentagon military leaders continue to watch with caution.

Filling the vacancy created by Quarles' death is the foremost problem. Various names mentioned in speculation include Asst. Secretary Wilfred J. McNelly, the Pentagon's comptroller, who has been a defense official since the outset of service unification; E. Perkins McGuire, assistant secretary for logistics; and Thomas S. Gates Jr., present navy secretary.

Gates has submitted his resignation.

The first quarter of 1958 increased about $1,700,000 over the same period in 1957. Consolidated earnings for first quarter 1958 were $5,270,998, or $1.10 1/2 per share, he said.

Earnings for the 12 months ending March 31 were $12,443,478, compared to $8,929,928 for the previous 12 months.

Let Husband Prove Himself Before Making Compromise

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a young woman, separated from my husband, and with a two-year-old son. When I realized, soon after the marriage, that my husband had no intention of ever making an honest living and maintaining a home, I was in a dilemma. I was a housewife and I had no other skills. I was a housewife and I had no other skills. I was a housewife and I had no other skills.

Pilot Fatally Injured in an Accident
A pilot was killed in a crash landing at the Hope Municipal Airport yesterday. The pilot was flying a small plane and was on a routine flight. The accident occurred during a sharp turn. The pilot was killed instantly.

May File Charges of Kidnaping

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Police County Sheriff C. T. Sullivan said yesterday kidnaping charges may be filed against three of the four men involved in the recent robbery of the Bank of Weimer.

Sullivan said he would discuss with Prosecutor Terry Shell the possibility of bringing such charges against James Hadd, 19, of Oswell; Joe Mullins, 26, of Leach-ville and Lee A. Chadwick, 37, of Leachville. Sullivan said Joe Mullins and Hadd were abducted and forced to drive the robbers to him from the scene of the $22,000 holdup Feb. 2. Mullins was sentenced last week to seven years in a federal prison and Hadd and Chadwick, 17, drew indefinite terms in a federal reformatory on robbery charges. Johnny Mullins had no part in the abduction, Sullivan said. Chadwick has been declared mentally incompetent at a federal mental hospital at Springfield, Mo., where he is now held.

Khrushchev May Visit U.S. in Summer

By JOHN SCALLI
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration appears to be planning a possible visit by Premier Nikita Khrushchev to the United States this summer.

Top officials are talking seriously about whether to combine a Khrushchev trip with a summit conference in some American city.

This signals a change in attitude by authorities whose views would be important in deciding both issues. Until now, they have stressed the difficulties involved in a Khrushchev visit or choosing an American site for a summit conference.

It plans for a summertime summit meeting, collapse, there is some prospect the bouncy Soviet leader will force the issue by asking to be allowed to open the Soviet Exposition in the New York Coliseum June 30.

President Eisenhower probably would say "yes" to such a request. The President would have no alternative, many officials believe, now that the Soviets have agreed to allow Vice President Richard M. Nixon to open an American National Exposition in Moscow July 25.

Khrushchev has made no official move yet to set up an American visit. But Soviet authorities in Moscow have made it known that "a senior official" undoubtedly would go to New York to open the

May Ask for Two Birthday Parties

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Sundays the daughter of the Ed. ward L. Fossett may ask for birthday parties on both May 4 and 5.

The clerk in a Lexington hospital showed 12:25 a.m. May 4 when the baby was born.

But in view of Kentucky's varying time zones, Fossett, an assistant attorney general, asked the opinion of a colleague.

The reply: Lexington is on daylight saving time but state law prohibits the official use of any other time than standard. So the child was born Monday night—at least officially.

Soviet exhibit.
The Soviets are believed holding off a decision as to whom to send until they see how much progress the foreign ministers meeting in Geneva makes in settling a time and place for a summit conference.

If an American site is agreed upon and an August date fixed, Khrushchev probably would send someone else to the fair.

The only Soviet dictator known to be anxious to visit the United States, mainly to strengthen his prestige at home and abroad.

The biggest obstacle to a Khrushchev visit remains the massive security problem. Hundreds of government security officers and policemen would be required to guard his every step.

Authorities are very much aware that an assassin's bullet might create a grave international crisis.

Long Objects to Naming of Dillon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen Russell B. Long (D-La.) raised a roadblock today to speedy Senate approval of C. Douglas Dillon's nomination to the No. 2 spot in the State Department.

When Dillon's nomination reaches the Senate floor, Long said, "I may speak for a day, or even two days, to illustrate why we have (biffo), many billions in—other countries and in some instances gotten nothing but hatred in return, under the type of leadership represented by Mr. Dillon."

Long is the only announced opponent of the nomination, which was received with enthusiasm Tuesday by most of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Dillon faced more fire from another source today. He was called before a closed session of the committee for further questioning about putting secret labels on country-by-country breakdowns of foreign military aid.

Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho) protested secret classification of military programs in Latin America.

The opposition of Long and Church delayed a committee vote on Dillon's nomination as first under secretary of state. This is the spot Christian A. Herter vacated when he was named secretary to succeed the ailing John Foster Dulles.

The dispute over Dillon temporarily overshadowed consideration of the nomination of Ogden R. Reid, 39, former president of the New York Herald Tribune, as ambassador to Israel.

Reid, on the stand only briefly, was asked to return Tuesday for questioning on his qualifications.

Students of CHS Rap Teacher Purge

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fifty-three former Little Rock students now attending Hendrix College at Conway, have signed a statement criticizing a teacher purge here.

The statement was received yesterday by the Little Rock chapter of the American Assn. of University Women, which has set itself up as a "clearing house" for purge protests.

James M. Walton, a Hendrix junior, collected the signatures. The statement expressed confidence in the teachers dismissed.

School board members Ed I. McKinley, Ben Rowland and Robert W. Laster voted last week to fire 44 teachers and administrators.

Most of the students signing the Hendrix statement were Central High graduates between 1953 and 1959.

Man Booked for Robbery at Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A city detective whose children were at an ice cream stand when it was robbed of $300 last night got on the case and turned up clues which led to an arrest.

Police booked Joseph Clinton Johnson, 23, of Hot Springs, on a robbery count after he was taken in custody near Malvern early today.

Police Lt. Joe Campbell said Johnson first denied it, later confessed, the robbery. Campbell quoted Johnson as saying the president a soft drink bottle held in a paper sack was a pistol. Campbell said $332 was found in Johnson's automobile.

Detective Walker Talley said his two children were at the ice cream drive-in establishment when the robbery occurred. The owner told officers a man entered and demanded money, took $200 from the cash register and $100 from the owner's billfold and fled in an automobile.

Talley's children went home and told their father, who was off duty. The detective went to the drive-in and a woman there told him Johnson, a neighbor of hers, was packing to leave his house.

Although Talley missed Johnson, he got a description of the man's car and an alert was broadcast. Hot Springs County officers arrested Johnson about 1 a.m. and he was returned here.

Hearing was scheduled in Municipal Court later today.

Pork, Chicken Rate High on Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pork and chicken, which rate near the top of any housewife's shopping list, are expected to be high this weekend.
The nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores are a wide list of specials on various pork cuts, frying chickens, pre-dominant among ads featuring food.
Most of the pork deals are for the less expensive cuts such as small picnic hams, fresh and smoked butts and smoked shoulders. Smoked hams and bacon also are offered, but not as widely.
The large number of pork items reflect marketings from last fall's 17 per cent greater pig crop. These pigs, plus expectations of a 13 per cent rise in spring pigs are expected to boost output.

Bolivia Party Held
Mrs. N. N. Daniel and Mrs. E. Logan entertained with a Bolivia party on Friday afternoon in the home of the former. Bouquets of pansies, roses and sweet peas were placed at vantage points in the party rooms arranged for the three tables of places.
Punch and cake were served from the dining table covered with a white imported linen cloth centered with a mass arrangement of spring flowers. A matching arrangement graced the buffet.
The high score prize was won by Mrs. B. Hestep, the cut prize by Mrs. Homer Ward and the tea guest prize by Mrs. Luther Steed.
Other tea guests were Mrs. L. C. Dill, Mrs. John Dewoody, Miss Julia Logan and Mrs. J. V. Fore.
Miss Erskine Complimented
The Broadway Hotel was the scene for a gift tea on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock given by Mrs. Charles Gutenson, Mrs. Arlen Bolls, and Miss Mary Nell Bolls of Little Rock honoring Miss Betty Ann Erskine, bride-elect of Bill Clark.
Receiving were the honoree, Mrs. A. B. Erskine Sr., Mrs. Arden Clark and the hostesses, Mrs. substantially ahead of 1958.
Fryer prices, on the downgrade for some time, are slashed another 2 to 10 cents a pound in a number of areas.
Eggs also are on the toboggan, dropping 2 to 4 cents a dozen over a wide area.
Special buys on fish are uncommon at this time of year, but rising imports of shrimp have forced prices lower despite smaller catches by U.S. fishermen.
Best vegetables this week are asparagus, iceberg lettuce (although somewhat variable in quality and condition), carrots, celery, new cabbage, potatoes, red radishes, spinach and green or white onions.
Fruit features now rare Florida oranges and grapefruit, California Valencia and naval oranges, lemons, bananas, pineapples and a few remaining apples if you shop carefully. Increasing shipments make strawberries look pretty few remaining apples if you shop carefully. Increasing shipments make strawberries look pretty good, too, while Western pears and watermelons also are good buys.

FBI Works With U. S. Jury in Vote Probe
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The FBI apparently is working again with a federal grand jury investigating the Hays-Alford congressional election.
Jury Foreman Carroll Hubbard conferred yesterday with FBI agents but declined to say what was discussed.
A source said the FBI would investigate any irregularities uncovered by the jury in its examination of the ballot boxes.
The decision to call in the FBI apparently was made by the 23-member jury Monday when it met to hear a report by a committee which had been examining the ballots.
An FBI report on a previous probe into the election is believed to have prompted the jury to launch its investigation.
Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark), a segregationist, defeated former Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark), a moderate of racial matters, by about 1,200 votes in the election last November.

Spain Defeats Cardinals for 250th Victory

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

In the four score and three years of major league baseball, only four left-handed pitchers ever had won 250 games. Now Warren Spahn is the fifth.

The southpaw put it away Wednesday night, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 3-2, and hoisting the Milwaukee Braves back into the National League lead.

It was Spahn's third shot at No. 250. Now 4-4 for the season, he had lost twice since bagging his 249th victory — which also came against the Cardinals.

Spahn, who joined the American League right-hander Earl Wynn (253) of the Chicago White Sox as the only active pitchers with 250 victories, was happy, of course, with Wednesday night's decision, but he accepted it like an old pro. "It's just a stepping stone," he said. "To the one I really want — No. 300."

He figures he might reach 300 if he can stay a starting pitcher for at least two or three more years. Now 38 his age-to-victories ratio is in keeping with that of the other four. Wynn to win 250, Eddie Plank, an American (and Federal) League player, is the top southern winner with 325. Lefty Grove won 300. Eppa Rixey (266) and Carl Hubbell (253) are the only National League left-handers who won more than Spahn.

Elsewhere in the NL, San Francisco beat Philadelphia 6-0 on the two-hit pitching of Sam Jones, the Chicago Cubs rapped Cincinnati 10-0 behind Glen Hobbie's three-hitter, and Pittsburgh beat Los Angeles 6-4.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox defeated Boston 4-3 as Bob Shaw allowed but five hits in his first major league complete game. The rest of the schedule was rained out.

Billy Bruton's eighth-inning home run off Larry Jackson (1-5) who gave up six hits, brought Spahn home a winner at St. Louis. The Cards were blanked on three hits over the last seven innings as Spahn, who fanned six, finished with a seven-hitter and became the 25th pitcher to win 250 in the majors.

Dick Stuart's two-run homer brought the Pirates from behind as they chased Don Drysdale (3-3) with three in the eighth at Los Angeles and slipped the Dodgers at half game behind Milwaukee. Don Demeter's solo home run had given the Dodgers a 4-3 edge in the sixth against Ron Kline, but reliever Roy Face (5-0) shut them out on three hits over the last three frames.

SO WHAT'S NEW

Actor Pleads for Oklahoma Racing

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Television cowboy Dale Robertson turned up in Oklahoma House of Representatives Wednesday to plead for legal horse racing and pari-mutual betting in his home state.

He said he saw nothing sinful about horse racing and noted that the Queen of England "and a lot of other prominent people" go to the races.

The story behind the dinner is one of reluctance by the party's old contributors — who never earned much for Eisenhower's brand of "modern Republicanism" — to kick in with their usual financial support to the Republican National Committee.

Ordinarily the Republicans pool all of their receipts, without reference to their organization, to receive the original contribution. Of any $1,000 donation, for instance, the House Campaign Committee gets $270, the Senatorial Committee $150 and the National Committee takes the remaining $580.

Sponsors for the House and Senate committees reportedly have been running into resistance on the part of contributors who have said they would be willing to put up cash for congressional campaign needs but are unwilling at this time to see the major share of their donations go to the Eisenhower-dominated National Committee.

Chairman Barry Goldwater (Ariz.) of the Senate Committee and Richard M. Simpson (Pa.) of the House Committee came up with the idea of staging a dinner honoring Republican Congress members and some selected Republicans who aren't in Congress any more.

The Republican National Finance Committee approved their idea of keeping all of the proceeds for the congressional campaigns.

Seven bids were opened by U.S. Engineers here. The project is part of a three year program to straighten the St. Francis and is known as the Grassy Lake drainage channel.

The 130-foot wide ditch will begin at the present river bed a mile north of Duval and return to the bed one mile north of Clinton, a distance of five miles.

About seven million cubic yards of earth will be moved.

Tommy O'Steen, Mike Westbrook, Mike Peamster, Joe Purvis, Gene Thompson and William Waller.

As mentioned above, all boys will be assigned to a team. Any boy playing in the Doctor's League who shows exceptional ability will immediately be brought up into the Little League.

Casey and Lane in Big Rhubarb Over Game

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

An intermittent rain fell and steady sprains flowed at New York's Yankee Stadium Wednesday as Frank Lane and Casey Stengel tangled in the latest round of their verbal feud.

Lane, general manager of the American League leading Cleveland Indians, was miffed because the Yankees hailed off Wednesday's game. Stengel, manager of the sixth-place world champions, shrugged and snubbed the doctious Lane, just as he did two months ago in spring training.

"I told everybody this spring," said Lane, "that the Yankees weren't invincible. Now they're in accessible. You can't find them to play them!"

"Maybe," said Stengel, when informed of Lane's remarks on the postponement, "somebody will talk too much some time."

The afternoon game, the finale of a two-game series which opened with a 7-6 Cleveland victory Tuesday night, was called before noon. Both Lane and Indian manager Joe Gordon expressed surprise. The game wasn't scheduled for today, an open date for both the Indians and the Yankees.

The Yankees, who explained they don't reschedule games that quickly because they feel it is bad business since they can't publicize the new date properly, said they had been informed that it would rain Wednesday afternoon and today. For the record, there was no rain at game time at the stadium, but it did rain later in the afternoon.

The second-place White Sox won the only game played in the American League Wednesday, closing within a game of the Indians as Bob Shaw blanked the Red Sox off five singles, 4-3 at Boston. Rain washed out the Kansas City at Baltimore and Detroit at Washington games.

In the National League, Warren Spahn gained his 250th victory and Milwaukee regained a full share of first place in a 2-2 decision at St. Louis. Pittsburgh slipped Los Angeles to second, beating the Dodgers 6-4. San Francisco defeated Philadelphia 6-0 on Sam Jones' two-hitter, and Gene Hobbie gave up only three hits as the Chicago Cubs beat Cincinnati 10-0.

Shaw, 25, didn't walk a man and struck out three as the White Sox won their fifth in a row. He retired the last 12 men in order while gaining his first complete game in the majors. It was only his sixth start in a three-year career, first this season after 14 relief appearances. He has a 2-0 record.

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP)—The Green County Grand Jury has exonerated Mrs. Mary Magdalen Arnold, 27, in connection with the fatal shooting of her husband, John Thomas Arnold, 40, at Delaplane on March 12.

After the jury returned a "no true bill" against Mrs. Arnold, her stepson, Ronnie Arnold, 21, was penalized for contempt of court for allegedly cursing a member of the jury outside the courtroom.

Circuit Judge H. G. Parlow fined Ronnie Arnold $25 and costs and sentenced him to five days in jail for contempt of court.

Survivors include a son, David Stuart of Phoenix, Ariz. two brothers, Johnny Smith of Tucson, Ariz. and George Smith Sr. of Hope. Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home.

McCaikill HD Club
On Thursday, May 7, the McCaikill Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Callie Lee Watts. Mrs. Verdine Walker, president, presided. Devotion was by Mrs. Zipporah Merrick.

During the business session, reports were made on the 4-H Rally Bread and Dress Show and the Community Leaders meeting.

Mrs. Walker led an interesting discussion on "Who Keeps Records." Mrs. Rhoda Jones gave a demonstration on "A Business Center," assisted by Miss B. L. Ford, HD Agent.

Main event of the meeting was a May Pole Cake. A stick of candy was used in the center with red and white ribbons tied to the candy and extending to the table with favors for each member.

During the social hour the group was entertained by the recreation leader, Mrs. Rhoda Jones.

Cake and punch were served to 12 members and Miss Ford, Mrs. Mary Norvell, Miss, Reporter.

National HQ Week Observed

National Home Demonstration Week was observed from May 9 to May 15, 1959. Activities carried out in various communities were: lawn parties, picnics, fishing trips, displays, special sermons, teas, club parties, clean-up campaigns and community leaders meeting.

In keeping with the State theme "Keep Arkansas Beautiful Where You Are," the council women completed their county project, a road side park, located on Highway 91, east of Hope.

Miss B. L. Ford stated that the HD women did a swell job of observing National HD Week.

British Will Build Reserves Even Higher

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

LONDON (AP) — American hopes of widening the market for its long-term goods seem likely today to be deferred again. The strength of the pound sterling and the swelling of British gold reserves well above the dollar point give U.S. manufacturers cause to hope.

But top officials at both the British Treasury and the Board of Trade say the time isn't ripe yet for their view: Confidence in the pound had been restored, but its reserves are built even higher. The British government holds that the balance of trade with the United States under existing curbs on many consumer goods is still too precarious to risk further liberalization now. But they insist that is their next goal now that currency convertibility is being achieved. And of course, they say, the day would be hastened if the United States would buy still more British goods.

Also a treasury top man says the British consumer is unpredictable. The British woman's already high interest in American styles might lead to a rush of goods, but it might also lead to a crash. On British youths might take a dash for American style suits — even a sudden fad for some popular singers could bring in so many American phonograph records that it could mean a drain of a sort on the balance of trade with the dollar area.

American officials here suspect there may be other reasons for the British dragging their feet on relaxing curbs on American goods.

The Americans had high hopes that the strong revival of British industry and its growing financial stability would lead to an expansion of the British token import plan. This now allows a trickle of consumer goods into the country to an annual maximum of five million dollars a year.

Then came a series of incidents in the United States that aroused resentment here. And the British stiffened their attitude.

The American moves included: Granting contracts for heavy electrical equipment to U.S. firms, although British producers made lower bids; U.S. curbs on oil imports hurting both British producers and U.S. oil companies with overseas fields; and wool fabric duties by which the United States greatly increases the tariff after a certain amount has been admitted each year. British mills say this hurts them most because they can't tell when the duty will rise and can't plan output ahead on their high style fabrics.

The Board of Trade official says that further relaxation of imports from the dollar area is coming, but it will be on capital goods machinery and the like — and not on consumer items.

Here are examples of what the would-be American exporter is up against if he wants to sell here: Electric refrigerators and parts can be imported to a total of $215,740 a year but subject to a duty of 15 per cent. Washing machines pay the same duty and the total value allowed is $134,475 a year. Vacuum cleaners can come in up to $188,350 worth.

Writer Mellow Against Ones Who Ban Him

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Still as banned as ever, Erskine Caldwell appears to be following toward those who ban him.

A little, anyway. Perhaps it is his ailment that has softened his indignation. He suffered a painful calcification of his hand and underwent an operation to cure it. He hand must remain in a cast and elevated, so Caldwell's vast literary output is stopped temporarily.

"I've always typed with two fingers—couldn't possibly dictate," he says.

Caldwell and his lovely wife had come here from their San Francisco home to discuss filming of his 35th and latest book, "Caldwell's English," with Warner Brothers. So far no area has banned this one, but it's early yet.

"I had to change the title for England because the spelling of English was considered to be an affront over there," he reported. "Also in France, because it was considered insulting to the memory of a writer named Claudel who had died recently."

The chronicler of raw life in the South said he is banned regularly in Boston, but "Detroit is worse. There they have three members of the police department who pass on all the books, plays and movies. They've got to ban something in order to justify their jobs."

Caldwell's treatment of Negro themes has caused him to be banned in South Africa. Given his native Georgia gives him the heave-ho at regular intervals, he said.

Moving around is part of Caldwell's nature. He has lived all over the East and West coasts, and he may move anywhere next anywhere but Chicago.

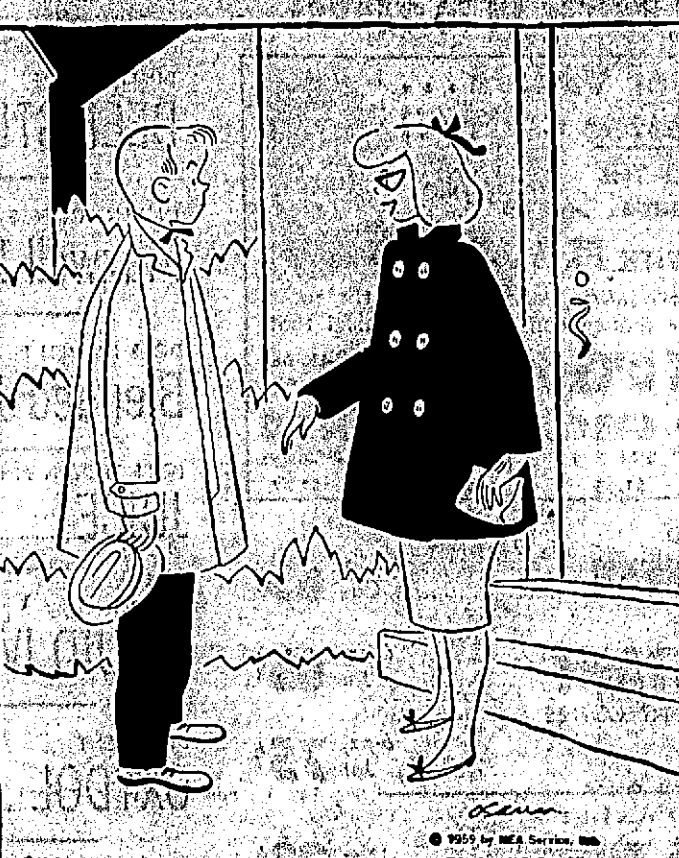

"Chicago is a moneymaker's town," he said. "It holds nothing for me."

Besides, Chicago is the only major city in the United States where "Tobacco Road" couldn't play.

Jim Furlong had assigned the men for each split and was supervising a division of supplies when Mace Gillum rode in. "Feeling sharp, at Gillum's driver's seat, Furlong asked softly, 'When did Ed die?'"

"Two days ago. We buried him yesterday."

Furlong was deliberate in making a cigarette, then reached to the fire for a burning twig. "Is Mary leaving the place?"

Gillum nodded. "She's taking the twins back to Missouri where her folks live."

Furlong remembered the last time he had seen Mary Overmire, and the accusing sharpness of Grace Kimble's voice when she said, "If Ed dies, the blame will be yours."

As if guessing what was in his mind, Gillum said, "Fern asked me to tell you it's not your fault, Jim. Ed blamed himself for not joining you. He told Fern that, after he was shot, said he should have got into the fight reardless of the wins. "He got into it," Furlong muttered. "And he paid for the privilege."

For three weeks, during which Furlong spent most of his time saddling the new strategy. Was surprisingly successful. The weather cleared with daytime's warm sunlight melting snow on the ridges and the runoff making waterholes no place for the camps were changed almost daily.

Tod Buford had a horse shot from under him, but was picked up by Red Taylor and the pair made a miraculous escape despite the fact that four riders had been boxed on three sides.

Three nights later, with two other companions, Furlong set fire to the headquarters commissary, and while that was being extinguished, doused the bunkhouse with stolen coal oil. The building fairly exploded into a flame-blazed ruin.

Another raid, at the roundup camp, for badly needed horses, was equally successful, although costly. Six horses were garnered but Cal Frisbie suffered a bullet wound in the chest and died 10 minutes after reaching the Rule's abandoned shack.

After that, for two days and a night, he hunted Cleo Veto in the stealthy, self-denying way of an Indian needing to count coup—going without sleep and without food, ghosting the roundup camp and the headquarters quadrangle, refusing to shoot at anyone other than Veto.

But Veto didn't show, and when he went to Lin Gordon's hideout, neither Lin nor his two friends were there. The next day, swinging close to the Tailholt Hills, he met Frank Peiky, who told of finding Gordon and his Texas friends all hanging from the same cottonwood tree at Paulano's crossing.

"How many does that leave?" Peiky inquired.

"Seven of us," Furlong said.

Peiky shook his head. "I'd join you if it wasn't for Lillian and

Boyer to Play in All-Star Game

PORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—The Wiswam Wisemen of America yesterday notified Tommy Boyer he had been selected on their All-American prep basketball team.

Boyer, who led Port Smith in two straight Class AAA-AA state tournament titles, was invited to play in the Wiswam All-American game at Hutchinson, Kan., June 24.

The 6-6 senior scored more than 1,000 points in three years of high school play. He has not yet chosen a college, although he has had 20 scholarship offers.

Porkers Land a Prize Halfback

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Chuck Tempier, a 225 pound halfback from Memphis South Side High, has signed an athletic letter of intent with the University of Arkansas.

Tempier, a three-year star at the Memphis school, runs the 100-yard dash in 10.3, despite his size. Razorback Coach Frank Broyles said the husky had received 20 scholarship offers.

"I'm just don't dust risk it, Jim."

"At a roundup that day Furlong rode into another hideout, and found Clay Dawson alone. Instantly apprehensive, he demanded, 'Where's Mace?'"

"Doing a little daytime court-ing," Dawson said. "But he'll show up soon."

Gillum did, in time to share the support Dawson cooked, and reported that Fern wanted them to have Christmas dinner at her place. "All 11 of us—for a feast."

"Seven," Furlong corrected, then told them about Cal Frisbie, Lin Gordon and his two Texas friends.

That news visibly affected his companions. They looked at one another in the soberly intent way of men sharing tragic news.

They tried to stampede a herd of held steers that night, but there was a full moon and the doubled guard drove them off.

The next day Furlong went on the hunt again for Cleo Veto, and again failed to find him.

Then Buchanan Eyre, shot in the right shoulder, was taken to Junction by Bonanza Beal.

That left five men.

Five gaunt, ragged men riding worn-out ponies—for another week. Then Tod Buford and Red Taylor disappeared.

So it was that only three men rode into the Tailholt Hills on a gray Christmas day to eat the big dinner Fern Lindstrom had prepared for 11 guests. Three tired men who knew they were beaten beyond any chance of winning.

"I'll have hot biscuits for you in a jiffy," Fern told them and produced a jug of wild cherry wine.

The lamplit kitchen was warm, a cheerful harbor against this day's bleak coldness. But there was no relaxation. They sat at the silent way of wary men conditioned to listening for vagrant rumors of danger.

"Mace Gillum said glumly, 'We're licked, Jim. We're done.'"

Furlong glanced at Dawson who made an open-palmed gesture of resignation. "It wasn't my idea to fight Empire in the first place," Dawson said with an echo of his old insolence.

Watching this, and understanding what it must mean to Jim Furlong, Fern marveled at the lack of expression in his whisker-shagged face. It was as if his gaunt cheeks were beyond the power of frowning.

When he failed to speak, Dawson asked, "You think different?"

Furlong finished his wine, and contemplated the glass as if absently noting its delicate contour.

"Do you agree we're licked?" Gillum asked.

Furlong nodded.

While they ate, Fern kept watch and sobbed quietly for a lost cause.

Reds Believe Time Is on Their Side

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviets, like people who think eternity is all the time in the world, are on their side. They showed up again at the foreign ministers' meeting in Geneva.

Since they believe that in the end communism will eventually own the earth, they can afford to take their time, moving forward an inch today, backward a foot tomorrow, if they have to.

Jump 14 inches ahead, the next time.

This has been their pattern since World War II: try this, try that, if it fails, try something else later. No hurry.

A good example of the let's-take-our-time philosophy was Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's performance over the weekend.

The United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union had agreed beforehand that the foreign ministers of West Germany and Communist East Germany could sit in on the Big Four conference, not as participants but as consultants.

It was natural enough to have the Germans in the same room. The meeting was called to find some solution to Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand that the Big Three (Western powers) get their troops out of West Berlin.

Khrushchev also wanted the Westerners to recognize the Red regime in East Germany as its lawful government.

This the West wouldn't do. It's the last thing its ally, West Germany, wants. The West Germans hope that someday, through a unified Germany, the East Germans will be pulled out from under the Communist wing.

No doubt the West would have been glad for West Germany to be a full participant in the Big Four foreign ministers' meeting. But, if it had called for that, the U.S.S.R. would have demanded full participation for East Germany.

So the meeting was ready to start Monday, with the two Germans on the sidelines and with no chance to speak unless spoken to.

The Western ministers, grinning and not optimistic about the outcome anyway, wanted to get down to business and get it over with. Gromyko arrived with the announcement he, to mean business.

But he wasn't in a hurry, as it turned out. On Sunday he upset the whole agreed-on program by suddenly demanding the two Germans sit in on the conference as full participants. It threw the Westerners upside down.

They let it be known they would break off the conference before they would agree to East Germany as a full participant, since

Walt to Head Pros at Spa Open Meet

HOPE, SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — More than 100 golfers are expected to attend a "Walters Open" tournament at the Walters Hotel, sponsored by the Walters Hotel, at Hope Springs, Ark. The tournament is scheduled for tomorrow in the 12- and 18-hole format.

Walters, who played off a spectacular finish by Middlecott to win here last year, played a practice round yesterday and announced the tournament will be played on the 18-hole course.

Prize money has been increased $2,000 over last year.

Annual State Horse Show Is Started

LITTLE ROCK (P) — The fifth annual Arkansas State Horse Show opened here today with the state's top equine competing for trophies and $10,000 in prize money.

The show, which includes divisions for saddle horses, fine harness, roadsters, parade horses and walking horses, jumpers, quarter horses and western horses.

The event ends Saturday. Proceeds go to help mentally retarded children with about 75 per cent of money for ticket sales earmarked for the Arkansas Children's Colony now under construction at Conway.

Singer Johnny Cash will be a featured entertainer at the show.

This could be interpreted as recognition of East Germany.

Gromyko's victory, bit and the conference began Monday after it was agreed the two Germans could sit in — still not as full participants — but with each permitted to ask to be heard when it wanted to say something.

This gave both Germans more voice than the original plan which would have required them to stay quiet unless asked a question. Who won in this deal: Gromyko or the Western ministers?

It seems clear enough, Gromyko won. He wound up with a bit more than he started out with and the West wound up with a little less.

Besides, his move made good propaganda for the Soviet Union. Gromyko created the image of the U.S.S.R. as a kind of champion of the two Germans, anxious for them to have an equal voice in the conference while picturing the West as stifling both Germans.

If it is argued Gromyko didn't get all he asked, there's an answer to that. He probably never expected to win 100 per cent. In these conferences, it's unrealistic for either side to expect complete victory.

An inch forward, here, another inch there, is quite a victory.

Abandons His Search for Wife, Family

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A Negro from New Jersey who came to Tampa looking for his wife and three children apparently has given up the search.

The family had left here, leaving a trail behind.

John A. Brown of Norwood, N.J., wanted a car in Tampa and told employees of the firm first night he planned to drive to New Jersey.

Brown, 35, a Merchant Marine engineer, said his wife, Louise, and their three children and a dog disappeared about 1948.

With sure she left because of mental depression, Brown said.

He offered a $1,000 reward for information which would lead to a meeting with his wife, Mrs. Brown, 34.

Team convinced there can be reconciliation, I can find my wife and talk to her, he said.

Brown said he and his wife eloped while attending high school at Douglas, Wyo.

He blamed her disappearance on "threatening" and "blatant" telephone calls because of our linked marriage.

A telephone call from a white woman at a Tampa trailer park brought Brown to Florida yesterday.

The wife and children, Jimmy, 14, Mary, 10, and Stella, 8, disappeared together with the dog several hours before the wife was found.

Brown found most of the family's personal possessions in the newly purchased trailer.

His wife took $1,000 in cash and their family's second car, a 1954 Rammer, when she left home, Brown said.

She could have taken $5,000 and the trailer, he added.

Guards Sent Into Cotton Mill Area

By PHIL CORNER
MEMPHIS, N. C. (AP) — Fifty shirt workers guarded by long lines of National Guardsmen quietly entered the struck Harlow-Henderson cotton mill today.

There were only occasional jeers and catcalls from small clusters of pickets who lined out at the mill's entrance.

The guards, who entered the mill yesterday, in this shift change

when guardsmen will head back to the streets, faced hundreds of shouting strikers. There was no violence, however.

Police said some rocks were thrown in an area not patrolled by the guard. Five persons were arrested and one was charged with hitting a guard.

The guardsmen, numbering about 300, were ordered here by Gov. Luther Hodges as a result of a new outbreak of violence Monday night.

Workers leaving the plants were pelted with rocks and their cars were fired upon. Local officials said the situation was beyond their control and asked for troops.

The 7200 employees of the mill struck last Nov. 17 when the company insisted on removal of the arbitration clause from the new contract.

Subsequently, other issues arose, including the job status of new workers hired when the plants reopened on a non-strike basis.

Violence has broken out repeatedly since the plants reopened.

The first patient was admitted to the Arkansas State Hospital for February 20, 1953.

The state made its greatest annual gain in population during the decade 1950 and 1959, growing from 409,625 to 1,215,211 during the 10-year period.
